AFTER TEN WEEKS.

Something Expected of Congress in a Few Days.

TWO IMPORTANT MEASURES.

In the Senate the Silver Repeal Bill and in the House the Bill to Repeal the Federal Election Law May Be Acted Upon—The McCrery Bill, Amending the Geary Chinese Act, Will Next Occupy the Attention of the House—A Probable Program of the Week's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—It is the common expectation that this, the 10th week of the extra session of congress, will mark an important epoch in the history of the country. In both houses legislation of the first order of importance is pending—in the senate the silver repeal bill and in the house the bill to repeal federal election laws, and it is believed that in both cases the work will mark a sensible advance towards a conclusion.

According to the present arrangement Mr. McPherson of New Jersey is to take up the debate in the senate. He has been an earnest listener to most of the speeches that have been delivered on the pending bill, and his own speech will be in the nature of a reply to the many points made by the silver men. Probably Senator Martin of Kansas and Senator Cockrell of Missouri will follow Mr. McPherson.

Wednesday the crucial test is to be made—that is, if a sufficient number of senators respond by that date to Mr. Voorhees' summons to ensure the attendance of a quorum. In that case the effort will be made to bring the silver repeal bill to a final vote by sitting continuously, the purpose being to tire out the opponents of the bill. If the pains of the repealers are successful the bill will probably come to a vote before the close of the week. But if the silver men succeed in the attempt to break a quorum and force an adjournment at any stage of the proceedings they are confident that the senate will be obliged to pass a compromise or allow the entire proposition to fail.

After the bill to reduce the federal election laws has been disposed of in the house as, under the pending order it will be on Tuesday, it is expected that the McCrery bill to amend and modify the Geary Chinese registration and restriction act will be given the right of way. When the bill was reported, the committee asked that two days be allotted to a discussion of the measure, and that then a vote be taken on its passage. The committee on rules has not yet decided upon the terms of an order, inasmuch as Representative Geary has expressed his desire for more time for the consideration of the subject.

Representative Oates desires to bring up the bankruptcy bill reported to the house last week, but prefers postponing consideration until the 16th inst., rather than to enter upon it at the close of the week. So it is probable that Mr. Geary will get an additional day for the Chinese bill. This would bring it to a vote on Friday, and the house may then adjourn over Saturday. But nothing definite has yet been determined upon any of these matters.

The bill to authorize the New York and New Jersey Bridge company to build a bridge over the Hudson at New York, is another measure likely to be called up at any time. A vote taken on the third reading and engrossment of the bill last Tuesday disclosed no quorum and it still remains subject to the demand for a vote. Since that time the committee on commerce has recommended amendments intended to meet the objections then raised by Mr. Warner.

As to the election bill the Democratic caucus will decide whether the Tucker bill or the Fitch bill best expresses the views of the Democratic party on the subject and shall be passed. The debate will close with today's session. For the Republicans, Messrs. Dooliver and Payne will speak and probably Mr. Burrows; for the Democrats, Mr. Fitch and Fellows of New York and Mr. Tucker, the author of the pending measure, will speak, the latter having the close.

A fear has been expressed that there will not be enough Democratic representatives present on Tuesday to constitute a quorum and pass the bill, but the managers say that the absentees left the city intending to return on that day and they confidently expect that the rollcall will show a majority of the house for the passage of the bill, even if the Republicans, as it has been reported, are in their intention, do not vote. The Populists will support the bill, the repeal of the federal election laws being one of the demands in their platform.

The Tucker bill provides for the repeal of Section 2002 of the revised statutes of the United States relating to the bringing of armed troops to the place of election, and of the various sections relating to the appointment, qualifications, powers, duties and compensation of supervisors of elections, and also for the repeal of the sections referring to the appointment, qualifications, powers, duties and compensation of special deputy marshals.

The Fitch substitute is not so radical in its provisions. It amends Sections 2002 and 5528 by striking out, wherever they occur in each section, the words: "Or to keep the peace at the polls;" and repeals Section 2011 and all subsequent sections down to and including Section 2081, and Sections 5521 and 5522, and all other acts and parts of acts which authorize the appointment of chief supervisors of elections, of deputy marshals of elections or of general deputy marshals charged with any duty respecting an election, and which prescribe their duties, or their compensation, or makes appropriations, therefor, and impose fines or punishment for resisting their authority.

The title is amended so as to read: "A bill to prohibit the military or naval authorities of the United States from interfering with elections in the state, and to repeal all laws which provide for the appointment of supervisors and deputy marshals of elections."

An amendment pending is that offered by Mr. Lacey (Rep., Ia.) early in the debate, and which is somewhat similar to the Fitch amendment. It strikes from the Tucker bill so much as purports to repeal the statutes which provide for the punishment of certain crimes against the ballot. Those statutes, Mr. Lacey states, are independent of the statutes in relation to supervisors and marshals.

Mr. Lacey will demand a ye and nay vote on this amendment.

Three Wrecks.

There was a small wreck on the C. and O. on the trestle opposite Wormald's coal elevators yesterday at noon. A switch-bar broke and derailed two cars of a west-bound freight train. The trucks were torn off the cars, and one of them had to be dumped over into the coal yard by the wrecking crew, in order to clear the track. It was loaded with coal. The accident delayed traffic several hours. Nobody injured.

There were also two other small wrecks on the road—one at Stone City and one at Quincy.

Leg Broken.

Samuel McNutt, Jr., the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McNutt, of West Third street, met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon. He was returning from the home of Mr. Jeff Easton, near the McNutt residence, when he jumped from a small step and fell, breaking one of his legs. Dr. Reed set the fracture.

Civilizing the Mountaineers

Elders Button and Masters of the Christian Church have closed a protracted meeting at Harlan Court House where they met with great success and organized a church of forty members. The mountain regions are making rapid progress in education and religion. There are three high schools in Harlan, one at the county seat under the management of the Northern Presbyterians, with three teachers; another about four miles from town under the management of the Congregationalists, and another which is un denominational. The schools are all well patronized. The public schools are also full and most of the teachers hold certificates of the first grade.

A remarkable feature connected with the improvement is that as the people become better educated and more moral and religious, the cause of Democracy grows. A few years ago a Democratic officer was almost unknown in that section; now more than half are Democrats.

TWO THOUSAND LOST

That is the Extent of the Recent Storm.

AN APPALLING SITUATION.

Millions of Dollars' Worth of Property Destroyed, Besides Thousands of People Have Been Deprived of the Means of Making a Living—The People Who Were Saved Dying of Starvation—Food and Clothing Needed For the Destitute.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 9.—From the news from every section stricken by the storm it is estimated that the loss of life is fully 2,000, while millions of dollars worth of property was destroyed. Besides that thousands of people have been deprived of the means of making a livelihood. The situation is appalling, but New Orleans is doing all it can to relieve the thousands in want.

Dr. Story, coroner of Plaquemine parish, has made the following report: "A good many carloads of provisions and clothing have been sent out, but not near enough. Men, women and children are without food and clothing. They have become so desperate that they have threatened to attack residences that withstood the effects of the storm and steal food. It is a frequent thing to see little sufferers crying and begging piteously for something to eat. Single graves for the dead were impossible. Great trenches were dug and bodies were piled in oas on top of the other. The earth was thrown over them, and if their names were ascertained they were cut in rude crosses above the graves.

"I do not think I exaggerate the facts when I state that at least 2,500 souls were ushered into eternity by the recent storm in Louisiana. This, of course, includes Bayou Cook county, Cheniere, Caminada, Grand Isle, etc. I never saw bodies decompose so rapidly as those of the storm sufferers which were viewed by me. This was due to the fact that the fish and crabs in the bayous eat the remains."

The relief party which set out from Biloxi tells an awful story of the destitution and loss of life in the Louisiana marshes. The marshes are filled with dead and putrefying bodies, in very few cases the corpses being recognizable. The number of lives lost on those marshes will never be known. The territory covered was a distance of 200 miles. Newly made graves were everywhere. The only sign of life seen in the marsh was one raccoon and it was floating on a log. Hundreds of oyster boats and luggers were lost with most of their crews, and the few survivors tell terrible stories of suffering.

Captain Lefort, the leading spirit among survivors of the Cheniere Caminada, places the number of the saved at 300. The population of the plantations and the bayous immediately connected with it was slightly more than 1,500. He says the island will be abandoned as the habitation of man. Grand Isle and Cheniere will also be abandoned.

The mayor has received a telegram from R. M. Arnold of Chicago, general freight agent of the Monon route, tendering free the services of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway for the transportation of donations of clothing and provisions for the relief of sufferers from the storm.

The city has raised a relief fund of about $675,000 and steamers, tugs, skiffs and trains have been sent in every direction to extend relief.

The only new development is the intelligence from Bayou Snadre, leading from Grand Isle district, that there are a hundred dead bodies along that section, making 1,600 deaths between Cheniere and Bayou Cook.

The Louisville and Nashville railroad is still busy repairing bridges and will not be in good order for two weeks.

A great many people are leaving their homes in the storm-stricken section and moving to New Orleans.

EXILED RUSSIAN JEWS.

Twenty-Two Thousand of Them Coming to America.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Father H. Griffens Honcharenko, a Russian exile known here as the patriot priest, is the principal authority for the statement that 22,000 Russian Jews, all men of wealth, have been exiled by the czar and are coming to America, a large proportion of them intending to settle on the Pacific coast. He says the ukase will go into effect Oct. 13. His information, he says, comes direct from Russia and is authoritative. No news of it, he says, has reached London, Paris or New York. The ukase is aimed at the wealthiest class of Russian Jews.

No details of their coming are obtainable, but the report is credited here. Father Honcharenko is a well known and reputable resident of Haywards, Alameda, and though not a Jew, is in sympathy with the Jewish and other exiles from Russia.

What lends color to his statement is the fact that news of it, seemingly from an independent source, has reached other prominent Russian Jews in San Francisco.

Cyclone in Arkansas.

CAMDEN, Ark., Oct. 9.—There is in Union county Friday night proved to be a disastrous one, many houses being destroyed. Two women were killed and two fatally injured. The cyclone was several miles wide and left a dreary waste.

Succeeded After Five Attempts.

RICHLAND, Mo., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Clara Ford took 50 cents worth of morphine and was found dead in bed. This was her fifth effort. She was young and handsome, but her married life was unhappy from incompatibility of temper.

THE PRIMARY.

It Passed Off Very Quietly, and Mason County Democrats Are Now Ready For the November Election.

Gooding, Matthews, Phister, Pearce, O'Donnell, Jefferson, Blatterman, Everett, Owens and Kirk Are the Names of the Successful Candidates.

The Democratic primary election last Saturday passed off very quietly, not a single disturbance occurring during the day, so far as known.

The secret ballot system of voting was used, and the crowds usually seen about the polls on such occasions were conspicuous by their absence.

The candidates for County Clerk, Sheriff, Assessor, Coroner and Jailor had walkovers, the only contests being in the race for Senator, Representative, County Judge, County Attorney and Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Gooding, Mr. Matthews, Judge Phister, Mr. O'Donnell and Mr. Blatterman proved the winning candidates in these contests.

The contest over the County Judgeship was the closest of the day. Both the candidates are very popular, and each has a host of admirers who worked like Trojans for their favorites.

Following are the returns as certified by the officers of election:

PENSION EXAMINATIONS.

A Wholly Inadequate Sum for the Special Work.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—More cases are now under investigation by special examiners of the pension bureau than have confronted the special examination division of the bureau for a great many years. The total number of cases for special investigation now pending is 16,800. This is an increase of 2,299 over the number pending on July 1, the beginning of the present fiscal year. At that time the number of special examiners in the field was 100, and this number has now been increased to 219.

The work of investigating pension cases is steadily increasing. This is due to the fact that each year claims become more difficult to establish because of death of witnesses, or their failure to recall facts, or uncertainty about them. The number of field examiners has been greatly reduced during the past four years. At the beginning of the fiscal year, 1889, the number was 254; in 1890, 280; in 1891, 198; in 1892, 114; in 1893, 120, and in 1894, 100. During this period the number of pending cases for special investigation and the appropriation for the work on July 1, of each year was as follows: 1889, 15,800 cases and $415,000; 1890, 10,534 cases and $415,000; 1891, 3,517 cases and $415,000; 1892, 5,967 cases and $215,000 appropriation, and 1893, 14,551 cases and $225,000.

The present appropriation is believed to be utterly inadequate for the work of disposing of the great volume of pending cases.

Assassinated.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 9.—Mail advices just received here from the city of San Cristobal say that a few nights ago General Manuel Escambray, at one time governor of Chiapas and senator for the same state, was assassinated at his home in Tapachula by shots fired from the street, 12 of the projectiles lodging in his heart. Tapachula being almost on the Guatemalan frontier it is probable that the assassin escaped in that direction. The cause of the shooting is not exactly known, but it is thought that a servant dismissed by the general perhaps had something to do with it.

SHORT AND MISSING.

Choctaw Indians Robbed Out of Large Amounts.

TUSCAHOMA, I. T., Oct. 9.—Ex-Treasurer Green McCurtain has not been heard from since he left here Saturday morning. It now turns out that his shortage is at least $20,000. The treasurer of the United States signed over to him $1,455,000. There were 13,748 Choctaws registered to draw $103 per capita. Out of this number something near 50 failed to draw. If they had all drawn it would have taken $1,416,147 to pay them, leaving a balance of $129,455 to his credit.

He has a credit of $24,727 but it will take about $5,000 from it to pay the balance of the claims that are registered. There is $104,727 unaccounted for. The Locke men are loud in denouncing him and a number of Jones' men also denounce him. His bond is $30,000. His shortage may reach $140,000 or $150,000.

Stanford Almost as Rich as Gould.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9.—Frank Shay, the Southern Pacific company's attorney, and for many years Senator Stanford's private secretary, is considered to know better than anyone else the value of the great estate left by Stanford. He says $55,000,000 would be a conservative estimate of the property. The assessed value of the real estate owned by the late senator is $9,230,000, and the market value probably $12,000,000.

Farmer Commits Suicide.

TOPEKA, Oct. 8.—Yesterday afternoon William Goodwin, a prominent farmer of Riley county, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor. He was accompanying his wife to Manhattan and when they passed a thick hedge fence, he asked her to hold the team a moment. In an instant she heard terrible groans, and when she reached her husband he was dying. She can not assign any reason for the act.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 8.—Bothchilde & Hahn, dealers in wholesale millinery, 175 and 177 East Fourth street, were burned out. The building was only partially destroyed. The blaze caught in the third story. The total loss is about $44,000; insurance, $45,000.

WORLD'S FAIR EVENTS.

Chicago Day the Crowning One in the Number of Attendance.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Yesterday was the biggest Sunday of the exposition season in point of attendance, and is not likely to be beaten. It was also more of an open Sunday than any of its predecessors. The weather was as pleasant as could be wished for at this season of the year except for the high wind.

Several of the state commissions with whom it is optional to close or keep open on Sunday relaxed their rule as an accommodation for visitors from their states and the open doors or signs invited all to enter. The Midway was a moving mass of merry humanity all day and in every other part of the white city the deserted village picture of previous Sundays became transferred into a most animated scene.

Flag and streamer decorations adorned the roof and dome and wings and walls of the Illinois building in honor of today's celebration, signifying Chicago's triumph over the fire of 22 years ago. Other states have paid a graceful compliment to the world's fair city by decorating their buildings. Even water have been made that more than 1,000,000 tickets will be sold for Chicago day.

The overwhelming passenger traffic of the low rate railroads, and the cry of the hotel and lodginghouse keepers that they are at last filled up, indicate that Chicago day will not be only the crowning gigantic success of the fair but within the gates of the white city will be massed the greatest number of people who have ever been brought together in the New World.

Black Smallpox in Mexico.

GUAYMAS, Mex., Oct. 9.—There is growing excitement throughout the state of Sonora at the appearance of black smallpox at Pozol and other cities. Authorities are striving to prevent the spread of the disease but many deaths are daily reported.

Deaths in a Steamer.

QUARANTINE, Oct. 9.—The German steamer Russia, Captain Schmidt, which arrived here yesterday from Hamburg, had five deaths during the voyage, two cabin and three steerage, supposed to be from cholera.

Good Lawyers.

Some of the most pious, the most consecrated, the most consistent, the most humble Christians we have known personally and intimately have been or are now lawyers. We could name several who have through long lives lived close up to their Heavenly Father in sweet and gracious communion. We say further that many of the purest, noblest men we have known—patriots in a high sense, with lofty ideals and a morale comparable to the best—were lawyers. They were an ornament to their country and the human race. We know some of this kind who still survive.—Wilmington (N. C.) Messenger.

A Child's Reasoning.

Among the many anecdotes relating to the late Rev. Thomas Hill, D. D., is one told by himself. Dr. Hill and his wife awoke quite early one morning and regarded with interest a crib which contained a precocious child of less than 4 years. Presently the child turned her face up to the ceiling and soliloquized: "Oh, how much easier it is for a person to think than to act. Now, with a dog it is right the other way!"—Exchange.

Coal Train Wrecked.

READING, Pa., Oct. 9.—In a coal train wreck at Exeter station Edward F. Corcoran of Schuylhaven was instantly killed and Engineer Flannery of Polo Alto severely scalded. Sixteen coal cars were wrecked and the locomotive thrown down a steep embankment. The accident was caused by a south-bound train running into a derailed car of a northbound train which obstructed the track. Traffic was delayed seven hours.

Horrible Discovery.

HACKENSACK, N. J., Oct. 9.—The decomposed body of John Erbrn, a Bohemian silk weaver of Hackensack, who disappeared about two months ago with D. J. Woods, was found near Benjamin's brickyard yesterday morning. His head was hanging at the end of a halter drawn over a limb. A little kitten was found nestling among the bones. The birds had built a nest near by lined with the hair from the man's head.

Food Needed to Ward Off Fever.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Oct. 9.—Sergeon Booth of Shreveport, La., says: "I think the disease of yellow fever is very light here, but am inclined to believe from what I have seen within the last 48 hours that the epidemic will largely increase and the rate of mortality go upward. To explain, the people are poor and ill-fed. They have no money to buy food. The commissary supplies are low."

An Exaggerated Story.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Simla correspondent of The Times says that there is no truth in the story from Calcutta to the effect that 11 mutinous Sepoys belonging to a Herati regiment had been blown out of a cannon at Bulmer. "This is a typical base story," says the correspondent. "The fact is that an orderly was executed for shooting an officer. Farman Khan is at Herat."

Moral Reform Society.

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 9.—The ministers of the various churches of this city have decided to form a moral reform society the object of which is to purify politics. Notices were read from every pulpit yesterday requesting the congregation to choose three delegates to represent the churches at the meeting to be held at the Second Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening.

Bridge Works Starting Up.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 9.—The Philadelphia bridge works, which have been idle a short period, started up this morning. The Pottstown Iron company has issued a notice reducing the price of iron to $2 per day to take effect Monday next. Ellis & Leisig's Iron company have also issued a notice of a reduction in their plate mills.

Collision of Ocean Vessels.

SUEZ, Oct. 9.—The British steamship Hajeen, for Bombay, collided with the troop ship Crocodile in Bitter lake, Suez canal. Four of the Crocodile's small boats were damaged, and her plates were cracked. The Hajeen leaks slightly. She will be repaired and proceed on her voyage. Nobody was injured by the collision.

Ended in Death.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—Waldro Messors, who was once a well known minister of this city and later of New York, died yesterday in the German hospital. Mr. Messors recently lost his church in New York, and later domestic discord added to his troubles, his wife instituting a suit for divorce. This is said to have driven him to drinking, and he had been dissipating heavily lately.

Base Ball Player Dying.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Lip Pike, who for several years played in the old Cincinnati Red Stocking team and in his day was one of the greatest ball players in the profession, is dying at his home, 168 South Oxford street, Brooklyn, with heart disease. He has been confined to his bed for several weeks and his physicians consider his case a hopeless one.

Had Sympathy for the Court.

Charles Townes, who was found guilty of grand larceny in the county court at Canadaigua, is a rather original chap. When he was called up for sentence he made an eloquent plea for mercy and sympathized with the court "for having to sentence an innocent man."

LAKE DISASTER.

Eight Lives Lost in Lake Superior. All Fishermen.

DEER PARK, Mich., Oct. 9.—A disaster on Lake Superior in which not less than eight lives were lost, came to light yesterday when a drifting boat was picked up by the crew of the Muskegon lifesaving station. The Negretia was sighted Sunday forenoon by the aid of strong glasses. It was soon ascertained that the craft was disabled and drifting. The crew put out in their boat and came up to the wreck just west of the station.

The craft was found to be a fishing boat. Closer inspection revealed her identity as a craft that had left White Fish Point Oct. 3 for AuTrain, 100 miles west. There were on board a crew of at least five men, and it is thought there were more. It was reported that Mr. Children was aboard, but this rumor was not verified. No one was found on the wrecked boat and there is not the slightest encouragement to believe that any escaped drowning.

The fury of the northwest gale which swept Lake Superior was at its height the night following, the day on which the fishing boat left, white fish bay and stancher vessels than this one could not have weathered the storm. When the gale struck the vessel she was undoubtedly overwhelmed and upset. Inquiry received at the lifesaving station in regard to any tidings of the boat has established her identity. It is not likely that any of the bodies will be washed ashore, as the disaster occurred a considerable distance out in the lake.

HIS WHISKERS SHOT OFF.

A Lively Row Between Farmers in Which a Woman Was Also Wounded.

DANVILLE, Ky., Oct. 9.—There was a lively row in this county between H. C. Douglass and his son, Steven, and their neighbor, James Shannon, all farmers. Mrs. Shannon was seriously shot, and her husband received slight wounds, including the loss of his whiskers. Douglass denied the right of Shannon to pass through his farm, and nailed up a set of bars which gave Shannon an exit. Shannon and his wife started for town, and finding the bars fastened tight, he took his ax and proceeded to knock them down. Douglass and his son opened fire at once, with the result as above stated. Shannon was not armed, but put his adversaries to route by starting at them with an ax. Warrants have been issued against all of the parties.

Burglars Surprised and Captured.

CELINA, O., Oct. 9.—While the family of John Brewster, living east of here, were visiting relatives at Lima, their house was entered by burglars. Neighbors discovered them, and a posse was organized and gave chase. The robbers made for the woods, and a lively and exciting battle ensued. A running fire was kept up by the burglars and returned by the farmers, who were armed with shotguns. They were finally surrounded and captured. On them were found four revolvers and two watches. They gave their names as Harry Brown and Jack Johnson, of Toledo.

Shot Down in His Home.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 9.—At Earlington, a railroad station north of this city, Clarence Griffing and Claude Robinson, railroad hands, went to the house of Elias Griffen, a coal miner, with whose wife the former was supposed to have been too intimate. The men were met at the door by Griffen, when an angry quarrel ensued, during which Robinson drew his pistol and fired upon Griffen, who fell to the ground and instantly expired. Griffing also fired upon Elias Griffen, after which the murderers fled, but returned later and gave themselves up.

Banking Company Assigns.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 9.—The Safe Deposit, Trust and Banking company of this city made a general assignment of all its property for the benefit of creditors Saturday night. Inability to realize on the assets of the concern in order to meet the demands of the depositors is assigned as the cause. A statement of the condition of the bank, made after the close of business on Saturday, shows assets of $234,036.50 and liabilities of about $204,000.

Suicided in a Cell.

ABILENE, Tex., Oct. 9.—D. M. Cade, a once wealthy man, brought to vagrancy by dissipation, was locked up Saturday for drunkenness. The prisoners are allowed to shave themselves Saturdays, and when it came Cade's turn, to the razor he slit his throat from ear to ear. ## THEY WON'T GET DAMAGES.

The Thompson Boys' Big Suit at Car- lisle Against James H. Arthur Is Dismissed.

The $10,000 damage suit brought at Carlisle by Samuel and John Thompson against J. H. Arthur, because Arthur accused them of stealing his hogs, has had a sudden termination.

The two young men were indicted not only for stealing Arthur's hogs, but also for stealing four hogs from their uncle, Robert Thompson.

Friday when the case against Arthur was called, the attorneys for the Thompsons fought for a continuance. This being denied, they at once asked that the case be dismissed without prejudice, which was done.

When the Sheriff went to arrest the boys, John Thompson was missing, and no one could tell where he was. He has skipped, and his wife and children are disconsolate.

Sam Thompson was put under arrest and held at $500 bond in each case. Robert Thompson, the uncle, from whom they are accused of stealing four hogs, became his bondsman. Public sentiment is decidedly against the young men. Since their indictments numerous stories of their night riding and irregular doings are being circulated. Since the sudden departure of John Thompson there seems to be no doubt in the minds of the public as to the guilt of the young men. Mr. Arthur says he has no disposition to prosecute the boys, now that they have dismissed their suit against him.

COLONEL ROBERT G. INGERSOLL divides music into three parts: The feet, the heart and the head. The first music is that of the savage, simply a tum-tum-tum, to which the feet and body keep time; the second, that of the heart as found among the peasantry of all countries, those simple melodies, always divinely beautiful, appealing to senses as a soft summer breeze lulls infants to sleep; the third, that of the brain which requires the highest cultivation to execute and intelligence to understand, and so music, from its foundation, progresses and ennobles.

THE SOUTH TO THE RESCUE.

Her Magnificent Cotton Crop Will Oure the Country's Finan- cial Troubles.

"The South this year, as it did twenty years ago under almost similar circumstances, will come to the rescue of the country and restore its financially diseased body to its usual healthy and prosperous condition," says the Southern Architect. "The South will do this most desirable thing through the means of her magnificent cotton crop. This has been the sheet anchor of our hope throughout all the gloom and danger of the unprecedented financial and commercial storm which has swept the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from Canada to the gulf, like a hurricane. However, the worst is over; the light of a brighter day is breaking; the clouds are rolling away; confidence is being restored; a healthier pulse beats in the veins of commerce; the debris of the storm is being cleared away, and the general revival of business, which is already being felt in all parts of the country—most notably so in the great business centres—will soon see us all "happy on the way" to the heights of success and prosperity. The way to our land of promise again lies through the cotton fields of the South. The snowy fleece will unlock the treasures of the world and a flood of gold amounting to over $200,000,000 will soon begin to flow into our country and fill every channel of trade and industry with its tremendous power and vitalizing energy."

A Class of Eighty Boys and Girls Confirmed Sunday at St. Patrick's Church by Bishop Maes.

Yesterday was a great day at St. Patrick's Church. About eighty boys and girls received their first Holy Communion at the 7 o'clock mass and immediately after the 10 o'clock mass they were confirmed by Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes, of Covington.

The church was crowded. The altars were handsomely decorated, and the many candles brightly burning added to the solemnity of the scene. The Bishop delivered a very instructive and interesting sermon, followed by a few timely remarks to the children before confirmation. In the afternoon they renewed their baptismal vows, when the benediction was pronounced and all was over.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop will go to Mayslick Tuesday and confirm quite a large number of boys and girls there to-morrow morning.

ALL THE REST OF THE YEAR.

The Committee on Banking and Currency Will Not Report Until January.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Chairman Springer of the house committee on banking and currency believes that by the end of next week all the members of the house who have bills pending before the committee or who desire to speak on the subject under consideration by it will have been heard. When this is over there will come a series of very interesting hearings of outsiders. It is the desire of the committee to secure the views of the ablest men in the country on the currency question, of all shades of opinion. With this end in view a list of names is being prepared of gentlemen who will be asked to address the committee. This list includes bankers, business men, authors, essayists and others whose knowledge and study of the subject would be likely to be of value.

The various organized societies introduced in the currency question will be the first heard. Probably A. J. Warner, the president of the Bimetallic league, will be among the earliest of those to appear. From New York some of the leading bankers, the president of the Clearinghouse association, the presidents of the big commercial bodies, the board of trade and the chamber of commerce will be invited to express their views.

From Chicago such men as Lyman J. Gage and the heads of the clearinghouse and board of trade are on the list, while most of the principalities will be similarly represented.

Horace White of New York and Comptroller of the Currency Eckels will have the opportunity of comparing notes, while the ideas for the representatives of the Populist party will also be solicited.

The members will be asked to discuss especially the working of the present national banking laws; how depositors and stockholders can be better protected. The proposed extension of the limit of national bank circulation from 90 to 100 per cent of the bonds; the workings of the state banks before the war and the pending propositions to re-establish them by the repeal of the 10 per cent tax, as well as to offer any suggestions they themselves may have for the betterment of the present financial system of the United States.

Chairman Springer is of the opinion that the hearings will run well into December and probably into the new year.

PLODDING THROUGH POVERTY.

An Embezzler Located Seven Years After the Commitment of His Crime.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—On July 13, 1880, Almon B. Thomson, cashier of the Provident Savings bank of this city, after embezzling $65,000, for which he was to account the following day, robbed the safe of $13,000 and fled to Canada. For seven years he has been as thoroughly lost to the public as though in his grave. Thomson's wife and two daughters shortly afterward disappeared in a like manner. The bank went to pieces but paid 90 cents on the dollar. The Thomsons were forgotten until last week, when the wife entered suit by an attorney against a younger brother of Thomson, who had administered the estate of their father, deceased in 1858. By the elder Thomson's will the wife of Almon B. was to receive a legacy. It was to secure this legacy that suit was brought.

On Friday last the whereabouts of the missing Thomsons were revealed. They were found in the back rooms of a shabby boardinghouse in New York. Thomson, careworn and prematurely aged, is a bookkeeper on a meagre salary. The elder girl is writing in an insurance office, while the younger is bedfast with a lingering illness and the mother is an invalid. Thomson's story of his wanderings and suffering is pathetic. Luck deserted him from the moment he fled this city. There are no claims or charges against him here, as everything was righted by his father. He says he will not return to St. Louis, where he was once on the top wave of the social world, but will plod on to the grave in the fight with poverty.

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF A MACHINE.

Human Brutality, Mystery and Supernatural Coloring.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 9.—Berea, a suburb of this city on the Big Four and Lake Shore railway, has developed a case involving the lowest order of human brutality, mystery and supernatural coloring. Three farmers living in the neighborhood combined in the purchase of a mowing machine and agreed that no one should be allowed to borrow it. A man named Brandt, living in the neighborhood, made an attempt to get the machine but met with failure after having received a promise that he would be allowed to use it.

A quarrel ensued between the three partners and Brandt, and threats of revenge were exchanged. A few days ago one of the owners of the machine, on going to his barn in the morning discovered that a team of horses had been mutilated in a most horrible manner. Nailed to the stable door was the tongue of one of the horses, which had been cut off as far back as possible. By its side was the tail of the other horse which had been cut off close to the body. Suspicion at once fell upon Brandt.

A son of the owner of the horse claimed to have evidence sufficient to convict Brandt, but since the day following the mutilation of the horses he has been mysteriously missing. The night of his disappearance his mother dreamed Brandt had appeared at her bedside and informed her that he had murdered her son and buried him in a wheatfield.

In relating this dream to the members of her family, an older son claimed to have had precisely the same dream. Excitement grew until Saturday when one member of the family, who lives at a distance and who knew nothing of the case, wrote home that in a spirit of adventure he had visited a fortune teller, who informed him that his brother had been murdered and buried in a wheatfield. The latter so thoroughly coincidental with the dreams of the mother and son, has thrown the town of Berea and the surrounding country into a fever of excitement. An organization of men was got up and a search made for the missing man, but so far without results.

THE WRATTEN BUTCHERY.

Three Men Arrested and Imprisoned For the Crime.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Oct. 9.—A warrant was made by Constable John Prater charging Lon Williams, Oscar Brown and Bill Kase with the murder of the Wratten family. Officers went to their homes about midnight and arrested them, and took them to Huntington, where they were placed on the train and taken to Jeffersonville prison for safe keeping.

They are now safe behind the bars, and as soon as the excitement dies down in this city they will be brought here for a preliminary hearing. These persons are notorious, and, according to report, Kase has made some statements that will prove very damaging to Williams. Brown and another well known party. The excitement has been intense all day, and large crowds were on the streets discussing it.
